COAST JAPANESE WANT OZAWA TO FIGHT TO LAST

Seek to Get Best Legal Talent Available in States to Handle His Case

In a conference this afternoon, Attorney D. L. Withington and Takao Ozawa decided that they would welcome any assistance from the Japanese Association of Southern California in the naturalization case, and would inquire into the character of the organization.

The Star-Bulletin has been advised that ex-President William H. Taft has been one of the men discussed by the Japanese as counsel to assist D. L. Withington in presenting the case before the supreme court. Taft's name was not mentioned in the communication received by Ozawa.

Members of the Japanese Association of the Pacific coast will secure the services of the most prominent lawyer in America to fight the Takao Ozawa case, now pending in the supreme court. J. Kasai, secretary of the Japanese Association of Southern California, has written to Ozawa outlining the plan.

Members of the various Japanese organizations in all of the cities on the Pacific coast from Vancouver to San Diego will contribute to a fund to assist Ozawa in winning the naturalization case which will be decided in the supreme court. Japanese on the mainland are willing to contribute to fight the case to a finish.

Kasai writes that if Ozawa and his attorney, D. L. Withington, consent the Japanese Association will secure the best legal counsel in America to assist Withington in the case. A meeting of the combined associations of the Pacific coast will be held in Los Angeles on July 22, 23 and 24, and at that time arrangements will be made to collect a big fund to assist Ozawa in his fight for naturalization.

The Ozawa case has been one of the latest naturalization cases in the past few years. Judge C. F. Clement rendered a decision in which he stated that Ozawa was not eligible to become an American citizen. The case was then taken to the ninth circuit court of appeals in San Francisco, and owing to the importance of the case it was referred to the supreme court.

Japanese throughout the mainland are standing firmly behind Ozawa in his fight for naturalization, as the decision in this case will decide whether or not a Japanese of foreign birth may secure the rights of citizenship.

Ozawa said today that he would accept the offer of the Japanese of California, providing his attorney would agree. Ozawa is expected to call upon Attorney Withington today to discuss the matter.

Two German sailors, Kurt Behringer and Irwin Blecker, were removed to the Oahu prison this morning for safekeeping because they were creating disturbances, were unruly and loud and bawling in threatening talks at the alien detention camp at the federal immigration station.

They are two of six sailors who were taken from the barkentine Germana three months ago, after the government order prohibiting the shipping of German sailors on American vessels was issued.

Immigration officials state that the two sailors have recently grown of numerous disturbances at the alien camp. Besides this they have really committed no other offense, but one of them, particularly, has been threatening to cause trouble at the camp. We thought it best to have them confined at the prison where they could be more closely watched and have less opportunity to make good their boasts," is the statement of one of the immigration inspectors.

Six other German sailors, all young men taken from a nitrate vessel which came here from Chile, were paroled and allowed to accept employment on the Kilauea plantation on Maui, but the three from the Germana have been kept in custody.

OMINOUS PETROGRAD SITUATION IS CLOUD ON ALLY SUCCESSES; MAY TAKE CAPITAL TO MOSCOW

FIVE HUNDRED KILLED AND WOUNDED IN TWO DAYS OF STREET FIGHTING—GERMANS CORRUPT SLAVS AND UNDERMINE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)

LONDON, Eng., July 19.—Announcement is made by Gen. Maugere that the air battles now in progress on the west front are the heaviest of the entire war and are resulting in defeats for the Germans, whose losses are more severe than those of the allies. The Germans are also making a special "drive" on the French front, hoping to harass and exhaust the French by attacks with picked troops, but the result is nil. On the east front operations are slowed up, the Russians being handicapped by bad weather and floods.

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, July 19.—The German newspaper Der Tageblatt says that the executive committee of the majority party in the reichstag will unanimously move a peace resolution.

PARIS, France, July 19.—Serious disorders are occurring in Petrograd. Five hundred have been killed and wounded in two days in the rioting.

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 19.—In the midst of serious internal disorders threatening the new government, Minister of Justice Perevizeff today resigned.

German corruptionists are working to undermine the provisional government. A lieutenant today confessed that he was sent to the front by German agents and sympathizers to preach a propaganda of a separate peace. He said the leaders of the radicals had an agent from the German staff whose duty it was to compromise the provisional government in the minds of the Russian people, and that funds have been sent for corruption purposes by way of the German legation at Stockholm.

The Germans are now under complete control at Petrograd. The government has sent light guns to the Tauride palace to prevent the radicals from kidnapping Tserelli and Tchernoff.

Shots were exchanged today between the soldiers of the government and the rebels. The government leaders are considering transferring the government to Moscow. A conference of soldiers and peasants will be held at Moscow to prevent interference with the Petrograd garrison.

The government has placed cannon in the staff buildings and at the Winter Palace. There is a feeling that the decisive stage has been reached in the conflict between the forces of order and disorder.

The government has been lenient with the radicals, fearing to make martyrs of the Maximillists in the eyes of the people. As for the masses of the people, they loyally support the government.

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 19.—Late today Cossacks were again patrolling the streets on account of the disorders, and armored motor cars are at the Winter Palace in readiness to take the government leaders to safety.

Russian Army Hammers on and French Give Crown Prince a Shock

AT THE FRENCH FRONT, July 19.—The German crown prince has received a rude shock in his generalship on the west front. On Tuesday the French stormed and recaptured positions northwest of Verdun which had cost the Germans the hardest kind of fighting to gain. The French took 500 prisoners and repulsed counter attacks. The Germans were not expecting infantry attacks on the positions and their reserves were not ready.

PARIS, France, July 19.—The French today expelled the Germans from positions taken on the St. Quentin front last night, and repulsed attacks at Verdun.

BERLIN, Germany, July 19.—Heavy artillery fighting is taking place on the east front, between Dvinsk and Smolensk.

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 19.—The Russians have again penetrated the village of Novica, south of Kalusz, driving out the Germans.

U. S. To Stay Out Of Allied Confab

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—The United States has decided not to participate in the allied conference which is to be held at Paris some time this month. The American government was officially invited to participate. The refusal is not a permanent policy of staying out of allied conferences, but was given because, it is stated, the conference is largely a military discussion of the Balkan situation, by which the United States is not yet affected.

Nevertheless it is realized that the United States will have a voice in the final settlement conference, in which the world's peace will be mapped out.

Robert Bacon, formerly United States ambassador to France, has been appointed chief of the American delegation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Associate Justice Brandeis of the U. S. supreme court today allowed the convicted anarchists, Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, to perfect an appeal to the supreme court from
